O. C. Bosbyshell

Superintendent of Mint
Dear Sir.

My son John Skilton was employed in the Mint, under Mr Snodden, as night watchman, he was discharged for political reasons, to support himself he bought a milk route, and can scarcely make a living, being a married man, I hear the employees of the Mint use a large quantity of milk, would you kindly give him the saving of the mint, you would be conferring a great favor by doing so.

Hoping you will send a favorable answer and excuse me for troubling you.

I remain

Yours respectfully
